GENERAL PURPOSE INFORMATION

Travelling To Rome

How to get here by plane

Rome is home to two airports, Leonardo da Vinci Airport in Fiumicino (FCO) and Pastine International Airport in Ciampino (CIA). Both are a short drive from the city centre and there are multiple options for public transportation to the city centre. There are ATMs, an exchange office and a tourist information desk.

Leonardo da Vinci Airport in Fiumicino (FCO) is connected to Termini Station by the FF.SS. Leonardo Express direct train (from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m.), which leaves every 30 minutes with a journey time of 30 minutes for €14. From this air terminal, the F.S. Express Train is the most convenient transport for central Rome. The city centre can also be reached by taxi for the fixed fare of €48 per journey.

The Pastine International Airport in Ciampino (CIA) is connected to the Termini Station and to the Anagnina Metro stop (Metro Line A – orange) by bus. From there reach Termini Train Station via Metro Line A. The city centre can also be reached by taxi for the fixed fare of €30 per journey.

Taxis licensed by Rome City Council are white and have a sign bearing the word “TAXI” on their roofs. The symbol of Rome City Council is clearly visible on the front doors and the license is inside the back left.

How to get here by train

All trains stop at Termini station or at Tiburtina station (some trains also stop at Ostiense station, which is close to Metro Line B stop Piramide). For more information, visit www.trenitalia.com.

From Termini or Tiburtina train station to M&S COE

From the Train Station take Metro Line B to reach Laurentina Metro Station (final stop). From Laurentina Metro Station reach bus stop (Laurentina Africa) and take the Bus line nr.”763” direction “Castello Della Cecchignola”. Alight from the bus at stop Cecchignola Viale degli Arditi. Proceed to Città Militare Cecchignola Main Gate (on the left side) and pass the check point, then go straight for a further 500mt. and turn right to Piazza R. Villorosi 1, where the M&S COE is located.

Getting there by own car

From whichever side of the Grande Raccordo Anulare (G.R.A.), the road ring around Roma, you are coming from, take the Exit 25, “ROMA EUR/CITTA’ MILITARE CECCHIGNOLA”, towards downtown, and follow the road for about 1,5 km. Turn right into Via dell’Esercito, following the road sign “Città Militare Cecchignola”. After 400 m, you will be in front of the Città Militare Cecchignola main gate. Proceed for further 500 then turn right onto Piazza Villorosi, 1

Please take into due account that Città Militare Cecchignola, where the NATO M&S COE stand, is a military compound and access is handled by military personnel and regulations. Civilian vehicles can enter upon authorization of the Base Military Authorities. Pedestrian (civilian or foreign military) have to leave their Passport/ID Card and to declare the reason of the visit i.e. meeting/courses/workshop/temporary duty at “Caserma A. De Cicco”. Will be released a temporary pass.

Public Transportation

Rome has a good underground railway system that will take you close by to most tourist destinations. The Roman Metro has three lines - A, B and C. The combination of A and B lines is X-shaped; the two lines cross at the city's central railway station, which is called ROMA TERMINI. Rome Bus, Tram & Metro Tickets must be purchased in advance from Tabacchi shops, newsstands, bars, or vending machines at metro stations and major bus stops. Principals tickets options are the following:

- B.I.T. € 1.50. Standard ticket, valid for 100 minutes from first validation on all buses and just for a single journey on metro/train urban route, even using different lines, but without passing through the turnstiles.
- ROMA 24H hour Ticket €7,00: valid 24 hours from first validation for unlimited journeys within the city of Rome.
- ROMA 48H HOUR TICKET €12.50: Valid for 48 hours from first validation for unlimited journeys within the city of Rome.
- CIS - INTEGRATED WEEKLY TICKET €24.00: Valid until midnight of the seventh day of use including the day of validation, for unlimited journeys within the city of Rome.
- ROMA PASS 24/48 HOURS: 24/48h ticket combines public transport with open top bus tickets «City Sightseeing Roma», offering the possibility to discover Rome in different ways. It is valid for 24/48 hours from first validation for unlimited journeys within the city of Rome, plus a 24/48 hour ticket for the open top bus «City Sightseeing Roma». The price is €30,00 for 24h and €40,00 for 48h; children under 10 years travel for free.

Miscellaneous

Electricity (220 V/50 Hz)

PLUG C : this is the most commonly used. Both plug and socket are shown below. CEE 7/16.

Plug F, known as CEE 7/4, below. This kind of socket is not the most popular in Italy, but is normally available almost everywhere.

PLUGs L and F are the most used in Rome Hotels.

Telephone

The international access code from regular phones is '00'.

The country code for Italy is '+39'.

Emergency Numbers

The emergency telephone number for Italy, which you can dial from anywhere in the country, is 112 (European number for emergencies).

Post Office

The Post Offices are usually open between 09h00-14h30 from Monday to Friday and between 09h30-13h00 on Saturdays. Stamps can be bought at tobacconists that either carry the blue and white "Tabacchi" sign or are simply marked "T".

Pharmacies

Rome pharmacies have alternating opening hours during weekends and nights. At most pharmacies, you will find a list of addresses for 24-hour pharmacies. Pharmacists can likely recommend the appropriate medicine or alternative if you describe your symptoms and many pharmacists in tourist areas can speak English.

See <http://www.paginegialle.it/farmacie-turno/Roma> to find out which pharmacy is open.
